

Scaling up the Energy Poverty Approach

The SCEPA (associated) partners

Interreg

Co-funded by
the European Union

North-West Europe

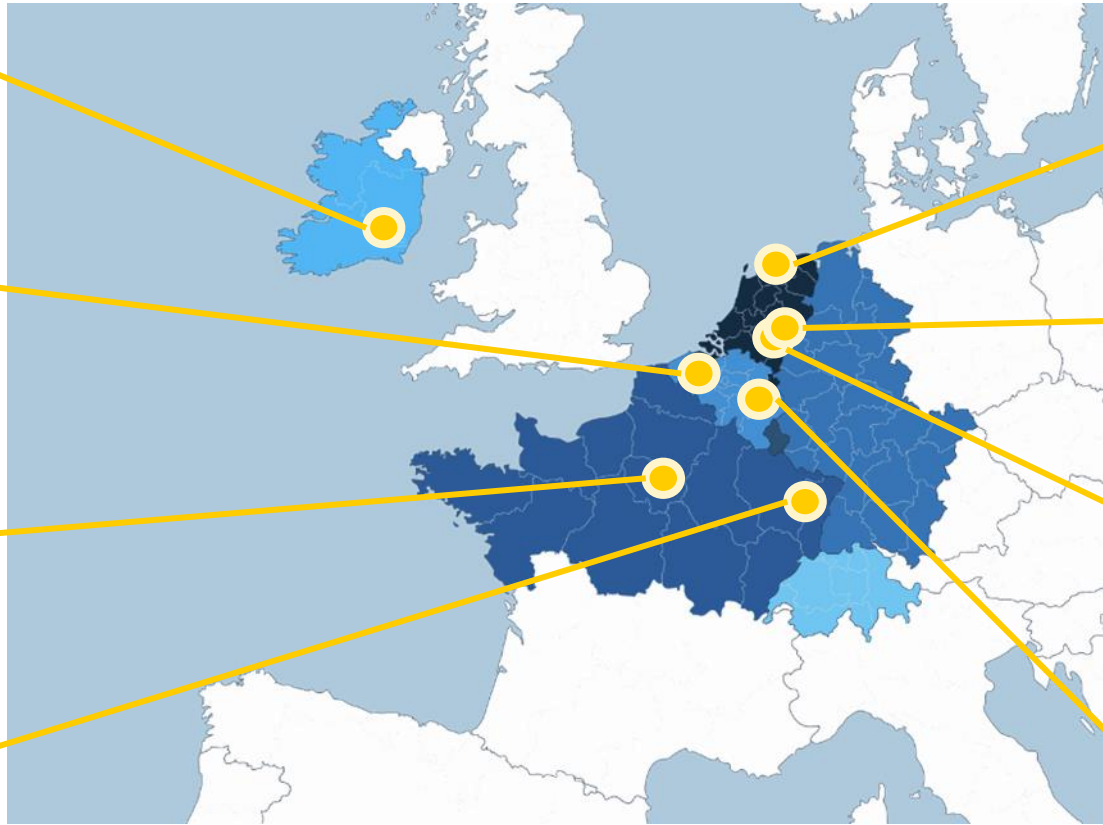

SCEPA

 SOUTH EAST
ENERGY AGENCY

 Agence
Parisienne
du Climat

alda
European Association
for Local Democracy

Gemeente Leeuwarden

GEMEENTE
Arnhem

HAN UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES

Liège
Une ville, un esprit.

 Klimaatverbond
Nederland

 Ministerie van Binnenlandse Zaken en
Koninkrijksrelaties

REScoop.EU

REScoop
WALLONIE

logo<sup>BO</sup> GEZONDHEID
TROEF

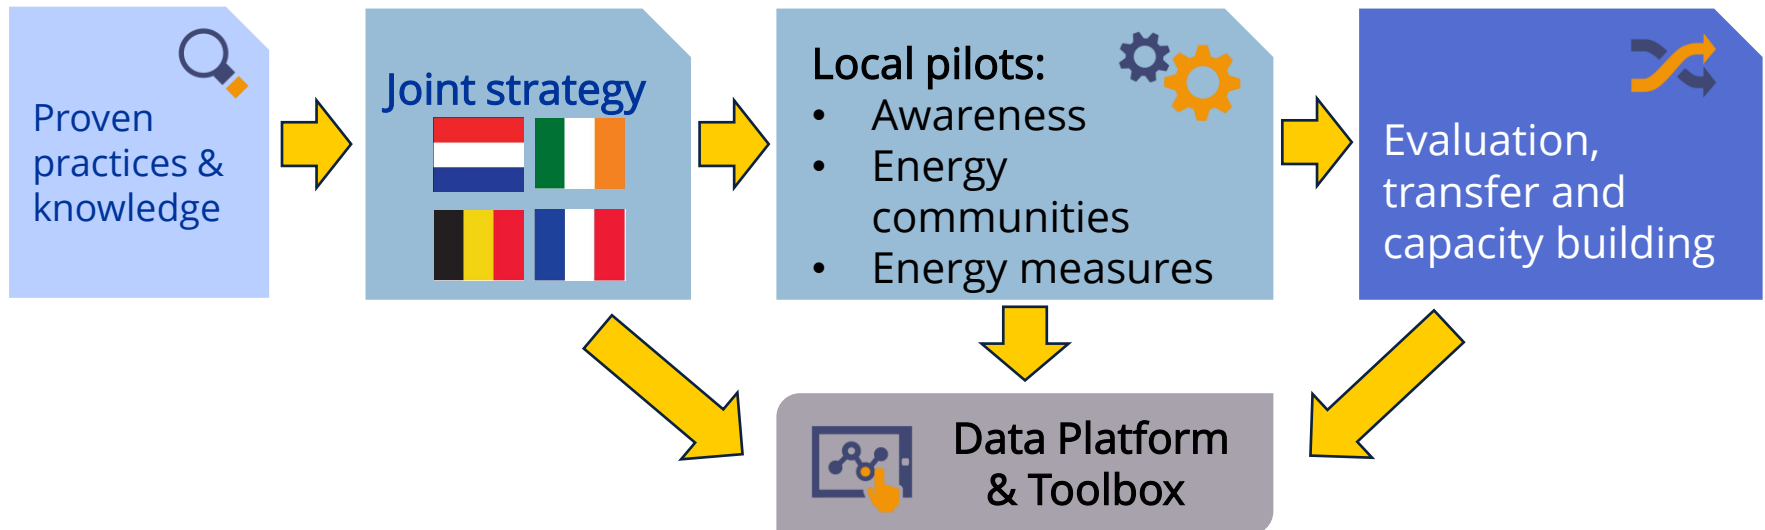

verbraucherzentrale
Rheinland-Pfalz

 Plymouth Energy
COMMUNITY

Scaling up the energy poverty approach 2023 - 2027

Challenge

- Accelerate scaling up of proven and effective energy poverty approaches
- Inform, empower and engage vulnerable households
- inclusive, participatory and effective energy transition

SCEPA Community of Interest

Scaling up the energy poverty approach 2023 - 2027

Interreg

Co-funded by
the European Union

North-West Europe

SCEPA

Proven practices &
knowledge

Joint strategy

Local pilots

- Awareness
- Energy communities
- Energy measures

Evaluation, transfer and
capacity building

 Data Platform
& Toolbox

 SCEPA Community of Interest

Scaling up the energy poverty approach 2023 - 2027

Interreg

Co-funded by
the European Union

North-West Europe

SCEPA

Proven practices & knowledge

Joint strategy

Local pilots

- Awareness
- Energy communities
- Energy measures

Evaluation, transfer and capacity building

Data Platform & Toolbox

SCEPA Community of Interest

scepa.nweurope.eu/blog/scepa-news-19

SCEPA and Energy Communities

Energy Communities are an effective concept to create local collective solutions to energy related problems.

Not only to share energy or collective renewable energy production, but as a means to engage energy poor households in the energy transition. To make the transition an inclusive transition.

However: still difficult to set up the organizational forms including the right legal frames for local Energy Communities. How can we learn from experiences in Europe.

---